

Except for sectionalisation valves, no other facilities are envisaged to be created along the cross country pipeline. Development of green belt area will be very minimal and will be adhered to.