No ground water will be used; hence CGWA permission for water abstraction is not required.