

Establishment of Civil Enclave at Adampur, Jalandhar Dist., Punjab State by M/s Airports Authority of India

Brief Summary

- The proposed project is establishment of Civil Enclave at Adampur, Jalandhar Dist, Punjab State by M/s Airports Authority of India.
- Reference point of the proposed civil enclave is 31° 25' 24.22" N and 75° 45' 44.58" E
- Proposed civil enclave will be located on 40 Acres area, transferred by the State Government, which is located close to existing Adampur Airforce Station.
- In the proposed civil enclave a terminal building having built-up area of 5,000 sqm will be constructed to for Peak Hour Capacity of 300 passengers, 150 Arrival passengers and 150 Departure passengers.
- A link taxiway with dimension of 115 m x 18 m with shoulders of 3.5 m width on either side of taxi track will be provided.
- Apron dimension will be of 120 x 112 m for the parking 2 nos. of AB 320 type with 3.5 m wide shoulders all around the apron along with suitable GSE area of dimension 30 m x 50 m.
- Parking facility will be provided to park 150 cars.
- The site for proposed civil enclave as transferred by State Govt is free from vegetation and buildings.
- Water requirement will be about 80 KLD for domestic, crash fire tender and cooling purpose, which will be supplied by State Govt. tubewell as per MOU with State Govt.
- No water body is going to be affected by the proposed civil enclave.
- There is no sensitive ecological area like wetlands, biosphere, national park, wildlife sanctuary, mountains, forests etc, within 10 km distance from the proposed civil enclave.
- Solid waste generated expected from the proposed Civil Enclave will be 130 kg/day.
- The estimated cost of proposed Civil Enclave is Rs 105 Cores.
- The construction of the proposed Civil Enclave will be completed within two years.